

DID THE CIRCUS COME TO TOWN?

Well, You Can Just Bet a Jitne It Did and It Paraded, Too.

BABE, a 110 year old youngster with Barnum and Bailey's elephants, lumbered down the main way from one of the elephants this morning upon the arrival of the circus, with the grace of a paperhanger reaching a rear seat in a crowded trolley car. Behind her swayed over a score of other elephants. Keepers stood by and watched them.

"Let's see if Babe knows the way," they said. "Ark-ark-ph-rum-w-umph!" trumpeted the elephant creature, and she went stepping it off up the street. Did Babe know the way? You just bet your last jitne she did. She hit the trail to the show grounds with all the readiness of a beagle upon the trail of a rabbit. Babe's precociousness can be explained by the fact that she has been here before, and the pachyderm that couldn't remember the trail from the railroad yards to the hay pile in the menagerie tent would be a plain unimpaired horse. But give Babe credit. There was a cakewalk in the circus 116 years old, named Lucius, his Borgia, and Lucinda, and he was seized and hauled to the grounds. Axes considered. The diddly will for a 116 year old youngster.

SEVERE RHEUMATIC PAINS DISAPPEAR

Rheumatism depends on an acid which flows in the blood, affecting the muscles and joints, producing inflammation, stiffness and pain. This acid gets into the blood through some defect in the digestive processes, and remains there because the liver, kidneys and skin are too torpid to carry it off.

Hood's Sarsaparilla, the old-time blood tonic, is very successful in the treatment of rheumatism. It acts directly, with purifying effect, on the blood, and through the blood on the liver, kidneys and skin, which it stimulates, and at the same time it improves the digestion.

Get Hood's Sarsaparilla today. Sold by all druggists.—Ad.

GEN TERAUCHI, JAPAN'S PREMIER

Former Minister of War is Asked By Emperor To Form New Ministry.

Tokio, Japan, Oct. 5.—Lieut. Gen. count Selki Terauchi, formerly minister of war, has been requested by the emperor to organize a cabinet in succession to the ministry of marquis Okuma, who resigned on account of age. Okuma's cabinet resigned with him.

Terauchi a Soldier.—Little is known in official circles here as to what policy Lieut. Gen. count Terauchi, Japan's new premier, will adopt. He always has been a military man almost above party questions, but in general he is regarded as a follower in politics of former premier Yamagata, under whose influence "the gentlemen's agreement" and other friendly arrangements were made with the United States.

For some time there has been considerable agitation in Japan in favor of count Terauchi's elevation to the premier's portfolio, especially by those who felt former premier Okuma's policy was too favorable to western nations and too lenient to China.

Annexation of Korea.—Count Terauchi's greatest achievement was the annexation of Korea. Made governor general in 1911, he was instrumental in revolutionizing the Korean policy of marquis Ito and vice-count Sone, his predecessor. At the end of his first month in office he had secured police powers in Korea for Japan; during the second he secured the right to garrison Japanese troops there; and at the end of that month, the formal notification of the annexation of the territory was made to the powers. He was given credit for his accomplished task without causing a revolt among the Koreans.

Two Performances.—A performance is being given this afternoon with all the splendor and magnificence that the Bar-num and Bailey folk can conjure up, and it will be repeated in the entirety at 8 o'clock tonight.

In the big show this year is much that is new and the diverting program starts with a professional peasant based upon the tales of the "Thousand and One Nights."

The inevitable callopes, welcome, but all too soon coming, for it meant the end of the glittering cavalcade, which struck the bullseye of popular approval.
